JetBlue flights are typically cheapest when booked on Tuesday or Wednesday, particularly in the early morning. These midweek days are when airlines, including JetBlue, often adjust prices to remain competitive. The sweet spot for booking domestic flights is 3–6 weeks in advance, while international travel is best booked 2–4 months out. JetBlue also promotes limited-time sales—keep an eye out on Tuesdays or sign up for alerts. Need help booking a flight or understanding Blue Basic vs. Blue Plus fares?
