

[No Extra Charge^]Can I transfer my KLM ticket to someone else?

Par Deals, le 13/08/2025 à 16:52

KLM tickets are generally non-transferable. This means once a ticket [1-855-510-5235 {us}] is issued in your name, it cannot be transferred to another person for security and fare rule reasons. 1-855-510-5235 {us} Airline tickets are tied to the identity of the original passenger, [+1 855-935-5526

{US}] and KLM enforces this policy strictly. If you booked your flight directly through KLM.com or their customer service, you'll need to contact them at +1 855-935-5526 to explore your options. If your [1-855-510-5235 {us}] booking was made through a travel agency, reach out to them directly.

In general, changing the name to another person's is not allowed, [+1 855-935-5526 {US}] but minor name corrections (like fixing typos) for the original passenger may be permitted. These corrections [1-855-510-5235 {us}] are often free of charge, especially if addressed early.

Some fare types, such as Standard or Flex, may allow other[1-855-510-5235 {us}] types of changes (like date or route), but name transfers are not part of that flexibility. If a transfer isn't possible, your best [1-855-510-5235 {us}] option might be to cancel the ticket—keeping in mind that cancellation fees may apply—and then purchase a new ticket for the other person. [1-855-510-5235 {us}] Reward tickets booked through Flying Blue may be [1-855-510-5235 {us}] used for others, but standard tickets must remain in the original passenger's name.

For detailed help or to request a name correction,[1-855-510-5235 {us}] it's best to call KLM directly at +1 855-935-5526 and speak to a representative.
